

CEMETERY DEDICATION

Dedication of a memorial plaque recognizing Myles Standish Burial Grounds as the oldest maintained cemetery in the U.S. will be held Friday Aug. 26 at 11 a.m.

Honored guests will include Daniel White, superintendent of cemeteries, Duxbury; the Rev. Francis Burke, Pastor, Holy Family Church, Philip, Canton; Thomas, president of Massachusetts Cemetery Association; George Kilbourn, president of New England Cemetery Association; Dorothy Wrenn, philanthropist, Duxbury; John Bangs, G.A., executive vice president, American Cemetery Association; Dunbar Munro, president, American Cemetery Association; and Laurel Freeman, retired superintendent of cemeteries, Duxbury.

The plaque was cast in bronze and donated by H. Matthews & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. The granite base was designed, crafted and donated by Barre Granite Association, Barre, Vt. and South Barre Granite Co., Barre, Vt.